

What is Churrasco?

Started on family farms throughout Southern Brazil in the early 17th century and now practiced at Muller Bros, the art of “churrasco” embodies a unique tradition of cooking over charcoals and open flames. This dining experience is representative of celebrations, sharing, acceptance and the hospitality among families, friends and neighbours.

Skewered and seasoned, a variety of fresh and high quality meats are seared over the “churrasqueira” then served, table to table to each guest’s preference for a truly distinctive experience - try them all (if you can!). During your time with us, we encourage you to sample a little of each cut at a time to prolong your enjoyment and reduce the chance of wasting good food.

Our “passadors”, the name for our meat-wielding waiters, appreciate that you keep your children seated during service; small children and large knives have never been a good combination.

EAT MORE, WASTE LESS

Here at Muller Bros we are proud of offering our “Eat as much as you want” Brazilian inspired Churrasco and the delicious food our chefs prepare and serve to our customers. But there is one thing we are not proud of at all, which is the amount of food that sometimes is wasted and we have to throw away. So we would like to ask you to be food conscious and remember, you can always ask for more of your favourites. (depending on availability).
